

COMMITTEE NAME

Distr.: General
01 January 2024

Resolution 0000 (YEAR)

Sponsors: Argentina, Belgium, Croatia, Denmark (Sponsors alphabetically)

Signatories: Ecuador, Finland, Georgia, Honduras (Signatories alphabetically)

Adopted by the COMMITTEE NAME at its meeting on DAY MONTH YEAR

The COMMITTEE NAME,

Affirming delegates full commitment to use this WiseMee.com MUN resolution template for educational purposes,

Emphasizing that you can find the full list of preambulatory and operative phrases at <https://www.wisemee.com/preambulatory-and-operative-clauses/>,

Bearing in mind each preambulatory clause has the first word written in italics,

Recalling how each preambulatory clause ends in a comma,

Taking note of how the clauses should go from macro to micro,

Underscoring the importance of mentioning important, UN member states, NGO's and other relevant stakeholders,

Welcoming clauses that cite the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and other relevant treaties,

Having considered the use of recommendations and proposals of the Secretary-General, or other relevant officials and experts, set out in a document or other published media,

1. Affirms how operative clauses start with a number and end in a semi-colon;
2. Requires operative clauses write what the United Nations committee will do and not give reasons for why the action is taking place;

3. Expresses the value of using sub clauses to;

(i) Develop a plan with multiple steps

- (a) Each sub clause should bring something new;
- (b) Sub clauses should build on each other;
- (c) Sub clauses bring important details and information to flesh the plan out;
- (d) The clause needs to cover the idea completely;
- (e) The idea cannot be divided between clauses;

4. Instructs resolution writers to only write a period (“.”) after the final clause of a resolution which says “Decides to remain seized of the matter”;

5. Decides to remain seized of the matter.